

2020 Giza

An easy to use design and specification software for the do-it-all furniture professional. The leading sales and planning tool for furniture professionals that doesn't require AutoCAD®. 2020

Giza is designed to do it all. Create appealing client presentations, develop fast, detailed quotes, design complex layouts and generate a comprehensive bill of materials—all from a single software platform. The suite contains two base applications, 2020 Giza and 2020 Worksheet. 2020 Giza is the most easy to use space planning software in the industry, and 2020 Worksheet is a powerful tool for product specification, pricing and creating proposals.

The Challenge

To keep up with the competition, designers need to turn projects around faster. They need easy-to-use software that creates accurate designs and layouts in an intuitive space planning tool. They need software that can manage more projects and create quick, accurate quotes in minutes.

The Solution

2020 Giza is easy-to-use software for building quotes and presentations that can shorten the sales cycle and create more efficient, more profitable design and sales teams. It's a non-AutoCAD®-based tool with the integrated features to import from and export to AutoCAD®, allowing effective communication with others in the architecture and design community. 2020 Giza measures up as your business grows as it's the ideal software for both simple and complex projects.
